DEPUTIES' MEETING

Wednesday, 24 June 1953

PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, General Cabell, Messrs. Wolf, Amory, Kirkpatrick, Helms, Colonel White and [redacted]

25X1

Mr. Dulles:

a. Noted that: (1) Messrs. Donkin and Callahan of the AEC had approached him with a proposal that representatives of CIA be appointed to discuss with representatives of the AEC ways and means whereby CIA could further assist the Commission and vice versa; (2) Donkin had advised him that this request actually came from the Commissioners; (3) he (DCI) had discussed this matter with Lewis Strauss and it had been decided to hold in abeyance any action for the present time. Mr. Dulles also noted that Mr. Strauss had mentioned a paper Dr. Chadwell was preparing [redacted]
